Diploma of Leadership and Management

Skilling for Recovery (Fee-Free Qualification)

(This training is subsidised by the NSW government)

Course Description: This qualification reflects the role of individuals who apply knowledge, practical skills and experience in leadership and management across a range of enterprise and industry contexts. Individuals at this level display initiative and judgement in planning, organising, implementing and monitoring their own workload and the workload of others. They use communication skills to support individuals and teams to meet organisational or enterprise requirements. They may plan, design, apply and evaluate solutions to unpredictable problems and identify, analyse and synthesise information from a variety of sources.

Entry Requirements: There are no entry requirements for this qualification, however vocational experience in your chosen industry would be preferable. It would also be desirable for you to be in a leadership position or aspiring to obtain a leadership/management role.

FEE-FREE—SKILLING FOR RECOVERY

Fee-free training in Skilling for Recovery qualifications will support those most affected by current economic conditions to gain skills in priority and growth industry areas, so they can take advantage of future job opportunities as the economy recovers from the effects of COVID-19.

The Fee-Free training will apply to anyone who lives or works in NSW and is unemployed or is at risk of unemployment. In addition to the above: Students that meet Smart and Skilled fee-free eligibility criteria (such as Aboriginal students and students with a disability) will continue to be eligible for fee-free training.
